Sports teacher

Alexander: I don't know how to tell my Dad, because he wants me to join the army, but...I would like to become a sports teacher. Well, yes, in a school...Just like Gerald Daredevil, who is such a popular teacher! I spoke to him about it the other day and he was most encouraging! He said that I've got not only the necessary physical skills, but also the...what do you call them?...human relationship skills needed for the job, like relating to pupils, listening to them, understanding them, motivating them, stretching them if they are gifted.

Also, you need to be enthusiastic, but that's not difficult for me!...And authority...I wonder if I'll manage...well, I think that if you have the right personality, like Mr Daredevil, and young people can relate to you, discipline is not a problem. Anyway, I'll continue with soccer and swimming and I'll go back to serious basketball training next year. I need to be good at a lot of different sports! But I wonder how I can tell my Dad... ?!

In a similar line of work, Alexander Major could also be: a guide – a coach – a riding instructor – a physical activities leader – a sports trainer -- a lifeguard – a gym teacher – a golf, diving, ski, or climbing instructor – a dance, judo, tennis, martial arts teacher – a top level sportsman – a sales assistant in a sports shop...

A few words relating to a sports teacher's work:

Here is a text using a lot of words from the list. Read it carefully, as you will have to use the same words afterwards.
