

Communication in the language concerned

Here is a dialogue with several people:

Eric : Are you coming with us to the match on Sunday?

Daniel : Yes, I'll be there. Right, now get into position for the practice.

Oliver : Who's serving?

Daniel : Your team. Go on, serve.

Jerome : Ouch! I've twisted my ankle! It's okay, though, nothing serious.

Daniel : Hey Steve! Pass the ball to one of your team mates. Don't just send it straight back over the net!

Oliver : That ball was out!

Steve : No it wasn't! It was in.

Daniel : It was out. Change serve. Get in the right place, all of you. You, don't just stand there! You have to move on the back line.

Eric : Yes, I know, but I'm a bit drained.

Daniel : *Have a sugar lump in the next time out.
Come on, get moving! And make those passes a bit more accurate!*

Keep the dialogue on page 1 in front of you.

Answer the following questions:

1. Which person is giving the instructions? Write his name.

.....

2. Copy out the first instruction in this dialogue.

.....

3. Who did Daniel say: “Get in the right places” to? Tick the right answer.

to Steve

to the whole team

to Eric

4. Who did Daniel say: “You, don’t just stand there” to? Tick the right answer.

to the whole team

to Jerome

to Eric